Desotorow Gallery presents “Eleven”

SAVANNAH, Ga. –Desotorow Gallery, 2427 De Soto Ave., presents “Eleven,” an installation by Jeremy McTiernan, on display Sept. 25-30. An opening reception will be held Sept. 25, 7-9 p.m. Both the exhibition and the reception are free and open to the public.

With the installation “Eleven,” McTiernan examines two tragedies, one occurring on a national scale and one on a personal scale. He explores both the tragic events of September 11th and the disintegration of the family in modern America. McTiernan notes, “The installation will challenge the viewer to look at these iconic structures in a new way, beyond the metal and glass to the humanity underneath, where the towers are no longer buildings but symbols: hope and despair, endings and beginnings, man and wife.”

McTiernan is a senior film student at the Savannah College of Art and Design, and a graduate of Douglas Anderson School of the Arts in Jacksonville, Fla. During his six years of study, Jeremy has tackled narrative work as a director and screenwriter, and experimental work in the areas of animation and installation. “Eleven” is Jeremy’s second installation in Savannah.
