Desotorow Gallery presents “Still Moving”

SAVANNAH, Ga. –Desotorow Gallery, 2427 De Soto Ave., presents “Still Moving,” an exhibition by Emily Metzguer, on display Oct. 30-Nov. 4. An opening reception will be held Oct. 30, 6-9 p.m. Both the exhibition and the reception are free and open to the public.

“Still Moving” is a collection of video portraits Metzguer has created during the pursuit of an MFA degree in photography from the Savannah College of Art and Design. With these portraits, she addresses the effects modern technology has had on the way we share and process information. Metzguer notes, “The sheer volume of imagery streaming from media, entertainment, and interactive industries has hindered our ability to be captivated by what we see. I just want people to be still with an image; therefore I had to make it move.”

The Oct. 30 opening reception for “Still Moving” also features karaoke by Wrath Nasty, a moonbounce and refreshments. For additional information about this show, call 912.355.8204 or email info@desotorow.org.
