Desotorow Gallery presents “Explorelations”

SAVANNAH, Ga. –Desotorow Gallery, 2427 De Soto Ave., presents “Explorelations,” an installation by Capucine Gros and Ramona Todoca, on display October 9-14. An opening reception will be held October 9, 6-9 p.m. Both the exhibition and the reception are free and open to the public.

The installation “Explorelations” is a combination of paintings and drawings, constructed in a way that challenges viewers to question their relation to art and presence within their surroundings. The artists note, “In a world where real contacts with others are constantly mediated and drastically reduced, ‘Explorelations’ is a call for remembering what it is to physically exist in time, space, and in the midst of other humans.”

Todoca and Gros are students at the Savannah College of Art and Design, and both have a strong interest in conceptual art. Todoca is pursuing a graphic design degree and Gros is pursuing a painting degree.
