

Theme: Is it a government tool, a war devise, a marketing strategy? Negative, positive or brilliant, propaganda is ever present and ill defined as a tool in our visual culture. We invite artists from all mediums to help us explore what this term means. In celebration or critique, please enter work that you feel enters into the realm of propaganda.

Eligibility: This juried exhibition is open to national and international artists (professional, emerging, and student).

Media/Genre: Open to works of all genres and media.

Delivery & Return of Work: All work accepted for the exhibition must arrive ready to install. Work that is not ready to hang or that does not exhibit good craftsmanship may be omitted from the exhibit. Work that differs significantly from its entry image may be disqualified. Work can be hand delivered or shipped. Hand delivered work must be picked up from the gallery by the date specified (see Deadlines). Desotorow Gallery is not responsible for work left beyond the date specified. Shipped work must be sent in a reusable container with return shipping prepaid. Work should be securely packaged, clearly labeled, and sent with a return shipping label. Work will be returned in the same manner as delivered, or via UPS/USPS. Accepted work will remain on display for the duration of the exhibition.

Entry Fee: You may submit up to three pieces for a non-refundable entry fee of $15. The entry fee may be paid online or with cash, check, or money order (checks and money orders should be made payable to DESOTOROW GALLERY).

Sale of Work: Desotorow Gallery, Inc. will not take commission on the sale of artwork. Payment will be made directly to artists.

Images: Desotorow only accepts digital images for consideration. Images must meet the following requirements:

File Names: Artist's last name followed by the entry number (i.e. Smith01.jpg, Smith02.jpg)

File Size: Images must be saved in a HIGH QUALITY JPEG format at 72 DPI and no smaller than 1000 pixels in any direction.

Mission: Desotorow is an art gallery that fosters an awareness and appreciation of the arts by providing affordable exhibition space for emerging and professional artists and by offering educational outreach programming open to artists and the community.

History: Desotorow Gallery has developed a reputation over the years as one of the most unique galleries in Savannah, hosting weekly art shows and participating in Savannah's First Friday Gallery Hop. Located in the Starland Design District, Desotorow is one of several small businesses on De Soto Avenue. After operating as an artist co-op and music venue for a number of years, the space was picked up by a group of motivated and passionate individuals and has been fully operating since.

In April of 2008, Desotorow incorporated as a nonprofit organization in the State of Georgia and became a 501(c)(3) public charity. The gallery is staffed by a group of committed volunteers who work hard to keep Desotorow a fun, yet professional exhibition experience. The gallery's intention is to encourage emerging and professional artists to exhibit their work at an affordable cost, to provide opportunities for artists as they continue their artistic pursuits, and to engage the community by providing high quality and professional exhibitions.
