THE GALLERY: Desotorow Gallery is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, volunteer-run, arts organization dedicated to promoting and celebrating the arts of all forms by providing artists with a facility to unleash their creativity. Because the gallery is a nonprofit organization, the usage fee that is charged of the artist directly funds the gallery’s operating expenses. The artist is then at liberty to sell artwork and may keep 100% of his or her earnings. The gallery will only charge the usage fee and never require a portion of the artist’s sales.

THE PROCESS:

1. Schedule an exhibition by emailing info@desotorow.org.
2. A deposit of one-half of the usage fee is required to reserve a date upon signing a contract with the gallery. The balance will be due two weeks prior to the event date. Payment must be made in cash or check.
3. We will market your show for you through our website, email, myspace and facebook pages, and assist with show card distribution as well. We will also prepare press releases for several print and online publications. If artists wish to place advertisements in print publications, the gallery can provide a list of advertising rates and deadlines. Artists may pay the advertising fee directly to Desotorow, which will design and place the ad.
4. The gallery provides assistance with installation and de-installation, and will also staff opening receptions. Installation and de-installation times will be scheduled one week prior to the exhibit.
5. Artists may choose to schedule entertainment for their opening reception. We are glad to provide names and links to band websites.
6. The gallery does not provide food or beverage for opening receptions.
